This brochure is designed to assist parents in locating substance abuse treatment options in the Austin-area.

While numerous options are available, this brochure only includes a sampling, as additional services can be found in the phone book or through an Internet search.

Elgin ISD does not license or endorse any of the contacts listed within this brochure.

By working together, we can address and control one of the worst threats facing our children today.

If additional assistance is needed, please contact your campus' counselor, nurse, or administrator.
